

Richard Wright Orgill

Inez Stringfellow

Orgill

Our beloved mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, Inez Stringfellow Orgill, age 90, passed away May 6, 1987, in Salt Lake City, Utah. She was incident to age. Born April 10, 1897, Droper, Utah, the daughter of George and Elvora Day Stringfellow. Married Richard Wright Orgill on April 26, 1923, in Salt Lake City; later resided in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. He died February 25, 1932. Member LDS Church, where she served in the Primary for a number of years. Worked for Droper Poultry as an egg candler for 20 years. She was an excellent cook and seamstress and assisted in the sewing of a loving and wonderful mother who will be greatly missed by her family.

Survived by sons and daughters, Richard S. Orgill, Theolina Thelin, both Salt Lake City; Derwin J. Orgill, Ogden, Utah; Janice Akamlian, San Francisco, California; ten grandchildren; nineteen great-grandchildren; preceded in death by six brothers and sisters, and a great-grandson, Devin Orgill Taylor.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, May 9th, 1 p.m., Droper 12th Ward, 600 East 12300 South, Droper, Utah. Friends may call at the Lorlin Mortuary, 260 East South Temple, Friday, evening, 6-8 p.m., and at the Ward on Saturday, one hour prior to services. Interment, Droper City Cemetery.

N3 5/8 T 5/7

Inez Stringfellow

Orgill

Our beloved mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, Inez Stringfellow Orgill, age 90, passed away May 6, 1987, in Salt Lake City, Utah, of causes incident to age. Born April 10, 1897, Droper, Utah, the daughter of George and Elvora Day Stringfellow. Married Richard Wright Orgill on April 26, 1923, in Salt Lake City; later resided in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. He died February 25, 1932. Member LDS Church, where she served in the Primary for a number of years. Worked for Droper Poultry as an egg candler for 20 years. She was an excellent cook and seamstress and assisted in the sewing of a loving and wonderful mother who will be greatly missed by her family.

Survived by sons and daughters, Richard S. Orgill, Theolina Thelin, both Salt Lake City; Derwin J. Orgill, Ogden, Utah; Janice Akamlian, San Francisco, California; ten grandchildren; nineteen great-grandchildren; preceded in death by six brothers and sisters, and a great-grandson, Devin Orgill Taylor.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, May 9th, 1 p.m., Droper 12th Ward, 600 East 12300 South, Droper, Utah. Friends may call at the Lorlin Mortuary, 260 East South Temple, Friday, evening, 6-8 p.m., and at the Ward on Saturday, one hour prior to services. Interment, Droper City Cemetery.

N3 5/8 T 5/7